

Position Description

Position Title:	Participation & Inclusion Lead
Team:	Participation, Pathways & High-Performance
Reporting to:	Participation, Pathways & High-Performance Manager
Direct Reports:	N/A
Date Updated:	19 Jan 2026

Purpose of the Role

The Participation & Inclusion Lead is responsible for designing, delivering and continuously improving Volleyball Queensland's participation and inclusion initiatives, with a strong focus on increasing access to the sport, reducing barriers to entry and creating welcoming, positive experiences for people from all backgrounds.

The role exists to grow participation in volleyball across the lifespan by ensuring programs are inclusive, accessible and responsive to community needs, particularly for underrepresented and priority groups. This includes leadership of key programs and initiatives including PlayVolley, Sporting Schools, sitting volleyball and para-sport participation programs, as well as identifying and developing broader grassroots participation initiatives.

Working closely with internal teams, clubs, schools and external partners, the role plays a key part in helping people discover, access and remain involved in volleyball as a sport for life.

The position is based from the VQ offices, with some intra and interstate travel required.
